Big Allied Convoy Reaches North Russian Ports

Meandering Along the Main Stem

By WASH FAYETTE

Signs of the times:

A group of young women thumbing a ride somewhere to the south... there were four of them standing in South Fayette Street in front of the Armory... they all wore slacks and had those colorful handkerchiefs tied over their heads... but definitely, they didn't look like immigrants... rather they looked as though they were on their way to work in a war production factory... maybe the one just getting in high gear at the edge of Washington C. H., they were headed in that direction.

Of course, I didn't go and ask them how old they were... would have felt uneasy had I given them more than a quick glance... but, off hand, I would say they were about college girl age... come to think of it, they looked as if they might be college girls... What would their grandmothers have said had they seen them hitch-hiking rides with strangers... their mothers probably think but say nothing... that's the modern tempo of life, and nobody thinks much about girls thumbing nowadays... just one of the signs of the times.

They didn't have to wait long... a man all alone in a nice big car picked them up... 'twas a break for everyone, I guess... traveling alone gets monotonous... what girl wouldn't like to have four nice looking girls for company?... and what girls don't like to ride in a nice car.

That cold snap Monday morning, when the mercury slid down to near the frost line, reminded me that just a month ago while on one of the big passenger boats of the Great Lakes, snow fell on us in the St. Mary's River, near the "Soo", and the following morning there was plenty of frost at Port Arthur, in Canada, on the northern coast of Lake Superior.

The incident also reminded me that during four different Augusts in recent years I have been in snow at various places... a thing unusual for one of the hottest months of the year.

The first time was at Freyburg, Maine, in the White Mountains, on August 23; the next was at Banff and Lake Louise, in the Canadian Rockies, on August 18 when the first blizzard of the season raged over that area and left all peaks covered with snow, and then, on August 21, 1940, at Yellowstone Park and on the 24th on top of Pike's Peak, there was snow.

However, I prefer my snow in the winter time—I believe it is more enjoyable.

FUGITIVE IS BACK IN PRISON IN OHIO

Sent from Chillicothe on Statutory Charge

LONDON, Sept. 23.—(P)—George Nichols, 56, of Chillicothe, who fled the London Prison Farm July 2, 1940, has been returned from Modesto, Calif., to complete a one to 20 year term imposed in 1938 for a statutory offense involving a 13-year-old girl.

Nichols unsuccessfully fought extradition to Ohio, carrying his plea to the governor of California.

Nichols was admitted to Ohio Penitentiary from Ross County April 13, 1938, and transferred to the Prison Farm February 8, 1939.

Records show the parents of the girl served workhouse sentences as a result of Nichols' crime.

Running Fight Which Lasted for Days

LONDON, Sept. 23.—(P)—The great majority of a big convoy of United States, British and Russian merchant ships heavily laden with war supplies for Russia has reached its destination in north Russian ports despite Nazi air and sea attacks, the Admiralty announced today.

It acknowledged some losses, but a communique remarked acridly that German claims—to have sunk 38 out of 45 merchantmen—were "more exaggerated than usual."

None of the conveying warships was lost, the Admiralty bulletin said, contradicting the German assertion that six escort vessels were damaged or sunk in the running attack by planes and U-boats in the lengthening autumn darkness of the Arctic.

No figures were issued, the communique remarking that "it is not intended to assist the enemy by informing him of the extent of his lack of success."

The communique said: "Another important convoy carrying large quantities of war materials has arrived in north Russian ports."

"Losses were suffered among the ships in the convoy, but despite heavy attacks by enemy aircraft and U-boats the great majority of the ships arrived at their destinations."

"The convoy consisted of British, American and Russian merchant ships."

"It is not intended to assist the enemy by informing him of the extent of his lack of success against this convoy, but it is possible to say that his claims on this occasion have been more exaggerated than usual."

3000 SLOVENES SHOT IN NAZI REPRISALS

38 Villages Wiped Out in
Effort To Halt Sabotage

LONDON, Sept. 23.—(P)—More than 3,000 Slovenes have been shot and 58 villages razed in recent weeks as reprisals for increasing sabotage of Slovene railways, Yugoslav sources reported today.

These sources, whose names were withheld, said dynamitings had disrupted lines vital for transportation of war materials and foodstuffs from central and southwestern Europe.

In addition to the Slovenes shot, they said, 165,000 had been deported to Germany and at least 70,000 to Italy.

Normal Life Sought In 'Trial Marriage' By Amnesia Victim

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23.—(P)—Pretty Mrs. Gloria Weller Miller and the husband she says is a stranger to her after nearly five months of married life will try to find happiness in the bizarre situation into which fate has cast them.

By means of a trial marriage, they announced last night, they will attempt to form a permanent relationship out of what was to him a normal domestic life, but to her was merely a hiatus in her existence.

A psychiatrist yesterday predicted a complete recovery by Mrs. Miller from the amnesia which gripped her upon the death of her first husband, H. Pierce Weller, former Birmingham, N. Y., editor, and under the spell of which she said she married Henry Miller, a commercial photographer.

"I've decided to stay and give him a chance," said Mrs. Miller, 25, to interviewers, "we will live together a while to see how it works out. It will be sort of a trial marriage."

"That's all right with me," Miller concurred. "I feel sure everything will work out fine. I'm willing to try it for a while."

Mrs. Miller said she was becoming accustomed to the new life to which she awoke Friday, in a city strange to her and wearing clothing she did not recognize.

"She's welcome to a divorce if she wants one," declared Miller, 42, "but she has no immediate thought of it. If she divorced me claiming she didn't remember marrying me there would be a lot of people trying it."

Mrs. Miller was examined by Dr. Paul J. De River, police psychiatrist, who reported she had a mild hysterical amnesia, and that she is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Miller's plight was disclosed Sunday night when she

Jap Bases Blasted On Pacific Islands

GENERAL MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Australia, September 23.—(P)—General Douglas MacArthur sent fighter planes swarming down the Buna-Kokoda Trail in New Guinea yesterday, pouring more than 34,000 rounds of ammunition into the Japanese and their war installations in a growing aerial offensive in the southwest Pacific.

MacArthur's fighters and bombers, in a series of attacks over New Guinea, New Britain and the northern tip of the Solomons, carried out the most extensive sweeps since the start of warfare on New Guinea, today's communique indicated.

Roaring up and down the track between Buna and Kokoda over which the Japanese supply their forces in the Owen Stanley Mountains, the fighters set fire to fuel and ammunition dumps, a warehouse and huts used by the Japanese, the communique said. A bridge over the Kumusi River, bombed the day before, was again hit hard.

At the Buna end of the trail on the northeast coast of New Guinea, three motor launches and a barge were left in flames, an anti-aircraft position was riddled with bullets and silenced and Japanese ground troops suffered casualties, it was reported. Medium bombers followed up the attack last night.

At Kokoda the Allied fighters poured cannon and machine-gun fire into Japanese positions, the communique said.

Ranging out over the Coral Sea, bombers attacked the Japanese airdrome at Buna, on the northern tip of the Solomons Islands, and returning airmen said they could see the fires from a distance of 50 miles.

Other bombers visited the Japanese stronghold of Rabaul on New Britain, flying through a curtain of anti-aircraft fire to attack the harbor.

BLOODY HITCH-HIKER GRILLED ON KILLING

Man and Woman Brutally
Slain in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 23.—(P)—A hitch hiker with blood stained overalls was questioned and another hitch hiker was sought today in the brutal slaying of a St. Louis federal official and his wife, whose bodies were found stuffed in their automobile along a highway north of here last night.

The couple, identified by Illinois State Police Captain Thomas J. O'Connor as Charles A. Nash, about 56, an attorney and group chief of the Bureau of Internal Revenue Department, and Eleanor M. Nash, 49, had been hacked to death, apparently with a handaxe found in the automobile. They had left their home Monday night for a short automobile ride.

Mrs. Nash's body was hacked and bruised. The ring finger had been cut from her left hand. Her body was found inside the automobile and that of her husband was discovered three hours later stuffed in a trunk of the car. The amputated finger was found beside Nash's body.

By ROGER D. GREENE

(By the Associated Press)

Russian troops slipping westward across the Volga River at night were reported to have driven the Germans from houses, buildings and streets amid savage hand-to-hand fighting in one section of Stalingrad today as the siege entered its 30th day with the invaders still held at arm's length.

At mid-day, Soviet headquarters acknowledged that German infantry, led by 100 tanks, captured several streets, but its communique declared:

"In other sectors, all enemy attacks were repulsed."

The German command noted "severe defensive fighting" in the Voronezh zone, 300 miles northwest of Stalingrad, where the Russians have launched repeated diversionary attacks against the Nazi left flank.

While the gravest danger prevailed inside Stalingrad, Soviet dispatches said the Germans actually were losing ground northwest and southwest of the battle-ravaged Volga metropolis.

Field messages to Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, said Russian shock troops had driven the Germans from a number of positions in the northwest and recaptured a village in the southwest.

Red Star declared also that the Germans had lost several thousand troops and 22 tanks in a

Farm Bloc in Congress Wants Ceilings Raised On Crop Price Parity

New Labor Service Act Proposed by Wickard

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(P)—Secretary of Agriculture Wickard said today that unless "we find some way to deal with the farm labor problem and other problems of farm production satisfactorily, we must find some way in the not too distant future to deal with a shortage of food."

Testifying before the house agriculture committee about a growing farm labor shortage which he said "cannot be overlooked or ignored," Wickard suggested that "a national labor service act should be given consideration."

Advance in Hog Prices Attributed to Demand

By WILLIAM FERRIS

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—(P)—

Absence of any Office of Price Administration action to place ceilings over hog prices, which appeared imminent three weeks ago, has led to another broad advance in quotations, livestock men said today.

Although the best price yesterday at $15.10 a hundred pounds was 20 cents under the 22 year high, the average price, based upon sales of all weights and classes, was at a new top since 1920. Average price was about $14.85.

Livestock men said movement of average price into new high ground, while the top price held under its former peak, indicated a strong demand for hogs with weight. Ordinarily, heavy hogs sell considerably lower, on a pound for pound basis, than lighter varieties. The gap between the classes now is much smaller than normal.

Heavy hogs carry much fat which may be turned into lard, and livestock experts felt the strength in these offerings may be based upon the rapid decline in lard stocks. The domestic supply of lard on September 1 totaled only 82,800,000 pounds compared with 228,074,000 pounds a year earlier. The five year

PLEA FOR 35 MPH MADE BY GOVERNOR

Voluntary Speed Limit Is Asked To Save Tires

COLUMBUS, Sept. 23.—(P)—Gov. John W. Bricker today asked all Ohio motorists to limit their automobile speeds to 35 miles an hour to conserve rubber.

The formal request followed a telegram from Frank Bane, executive director of the council of state governments, who stressed that adoption of such a speed limit was necessary in view of the tire shortage.

Ohio's present speed limit is 50 miles an hour, but law enforcement agencies have been reporting to office of price administration officials motorists who exceed 40 miles an hour. Such reports are considered when motorists apply for rationed tires or retreads.

said. "It is a question which affects the entire war effort."

While 1942 food production has reached a record high, he told the committee beginning an investigation of the whole farm problem, "the future is much darker," since much labor for the 1942 crop was performed before the United States entered the war.

"We begin on the 1943 crop with a labor situation far more threatening than a year ago and every sign points to our losing more and more men," the secretary testified.

Wickard estimated that by the Administration leaders in the Senate, apparently taken aback by yesterday's surge of support for the parity change, made a hasty overnight canvass for votes.

Farm state lawmakers want the increased cost of hired farm labor taken into account in computing parity prices. This is not done under present law. The pending bill provides that farm price ceilings may not be set lower than full parity, or the highest price between January 1 and September 15 this year, whichever is higher.

(Parity level is a level calculated to give farmers the same ratio between the prices of the things they sell and those they buy which prevailed in a favorable past period, in most cases 1909-14.)

Glum but not despairing, the President's leaders in the Senate were ready to present their side of the argument today. They were ready to cite Mr. Roosevelt's letter of last Thursday to the chairmen of the Senate and House Banking committees, in which he wrote:

"I should like to make clear my unalterable opposition to any recomputation of parity at this time. In my message of September 7 I stated, 'In computing parity, we should continue to use the computation of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics made under Murder of Gustave Redemskis, left above, German-born research chemist, who was found slain in his luxurious Chicago suburban home, has revealed his strange Dr. Jekyll-Mr. Hyde manner of living. Mrs. Doorley, who identified herself as Redemskis' "part-time wife," said the chemist often had showed admiration for Adolf Hitler. Newspaper stories about the burning of the former French Liner Normandie and sinkings of United Nations ships by Axis raiders were found among Redemskis' effects.

COST OF LIVING STABILIZATION BILL IS IN JAM

President Is Defied in Drive
To Change Formula for Fixing Parity Prices

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(P)—Openly confident of victory, Congressional Farm Bloc forces today pressed their drive to write higher farm parity ceilings into the anti-inflation bill, a move toward which President Roosevelt has expressed "unalterable opposition."

Administration leaders in the Senate, apparently taken aback by yesterday's surge of support for the parity change, made a hasty overnight canvass for votes. Farm state lawmakers want the increased cost of hired farm labor taken into account in computing parity prices. This is not done under present law. ### TIME LIMIT LIFTED BY RUBBER WORKERS

'Any Number of Hours' on Job
To Win War, They Say

AKRON, Sept. 23.—(P)—The CIO United Rubber Workers accuse business concerns of engaging in the "despicable practice" of seeking unnecessary selective service deferments for employees.

In a resolution adopted by the Union's national convention, delegates declared some industries had "saddily abused" powers to obtain deferments for men essential to war production and demanded that the practice be stopped.

Concerning the six-hour day as provided in the Union's contracts, rubber workers voted to shift to eight hours—or to "any number of hours to win the battle of production"—if it is demonstrated that a labor shortage exists.

Switzerland Has Problem In Refugees To Maintain Amazing Neutral Status

(Wide World News Service) Little Switzerland has ample cause for her anxiety over the large and increasing number of refugees who are begging admission at her frontiers, for there has been created a problem which Justice Minister Von Steiger warns is endangering the security of the nation.

Apart from the economic strain on the country's limited resources, and the risk of acquiring undesirable, her neutrality might easily be placed in jeopardy. That neutrality is one of Switzerland's greatest treasures, since she has safeguarded for six and a half centuries is involved. She has no reason to fear the Allies, but a successful German invasion would mean bondage.

The Swiss success in maintaining their neutrality is one of the phenomena of the war. Their towering mountains afford them much protection, but because they stand in the heart of trouble those same peaks are exposed to international political blasts from all directions.

There are several reasons why the Swiss have been able thus far to keep out of the conflict. One of them is that the government has kept a shrewd and level head, but there's a lot more to it than that.

The Axis powers, and the Allies for that matter, find that Switzerland's neutrality provides them with an excellent listening post.

The country is full of the agents of both sides in the war. Travelers from many countries drift in and out, and leave behind them a trail of information.

Then Switzerland provides a useful medium through which the Axis can make money transactions necessary to provide funds for their workers (saboteurs and spies) abroad. German money is unacceptable abroad, but Swiss money is good the world over, and this can be secured by the Axis by creating a trade balance in their favor. Such transactions naturally are normal and in accord with neutrality.

Switzerland also provides a grand general post office for all nations. Undoubtedly Germany and her satellites receive not only information but money and other valuables in the mails. Also, all hands are happy to have the International Red Cross in Switzerland.

However, I should say that Swiss security from attack by Hitler rests largely in the fact that Germany and Italy must have access to the Simplon and St. Gothard railroads which pass through three of the world's longest tunnels—The Lotschberg, Simplon and Gothard—and are the chief highways between the Mediterranean and northern Europe.

Charles S. Foltz, Jr., Associated Press correspondent, some time ago reported from Switzerland that streams of German, Dutch, Belgian, French, Czech and Polish cars, all in the service of the Axis, were passing southward into Italy with coal and iron, and on returning were bringing some bauxite (aluminum ore) which had been shipped from Yugoslavia to Trieste, and fruits and vegetables from Italy.

Now these tunnels have been heavily mined by the Swiss and undoubtedly would be blown up should German make an attack on Switzerland. It would take years to make the tunnels serviceable again. This seems to be the primary reason why the Axis powers haven't monkeyed with Swiss neutrality—they can't get along without those tunnels.

two-day battle for an important height—perhaps referring to a hill overlooking the heart of Stalingrad, which had previously been reported the scene of a bitter five-day battle.

Daring Desert Raid Meanwhile, daring British desert patrol raids 500 miles behind the Axis' Egyptian line on three vital enemy points—the big supply port of Bengasi, the nearby coastal site of Barce and the outpost garrison at the Gialo Oasis deep in the desert—were disclosed by the British command today.

Announcement of the most spectacular large-scale land raiding in the whole war on the Mediterranean front, in which the British said heavy blows were dealt the enemy, came only after the Italians yesterday had acknowledged a six-day battle at the Gialo Oasis.

The disclosure of these rapid-fire land patrol operations showed that even the land-sea air raid on Tobruk the night of

COMBINE CLINIC TUESDAY NIGHT DRAWS OVER 125

Deep Interest Manifested In Harvest Plans for Big Soybean Crop

Fayette County's combine owners and operators turned out en masse Tuesday evening to hear I. P. Blauser of the Agricultural Engineering Department, discuss combine operating problems. Over 125 people were present for the two hour session held at the W. and W. Implement place of business on West Court Street where the implement dealers in the county had brought in their particular makes of combines to explain adjustments and change over necessary for harvesting soybeans.

Fayette County soybean acreage is estimated between 12,000 and 16,000 acres. This is not a large acreage to be harvested in proportion to the number of combines in the county, states county agent W. W. Montgomery. It is estimated that Fayette County is one of the leading counties in the state for combines, there being somewhere between 300 and 400 combines on the farms in the county. This means really less than 40 acres of beans per combine.

Harry Silcott, chairman of the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Association discussed the government price support and loan. The government price and support will be $1.60 per bushel for No. 2 beans. Silcott stated that the Commodity Credit Corporation had storage for the purchase of about 30,000 bushels of beans on the old fair ground where they have some 180,000 bushels of wheat stored.

The farmers are urged, however, to make preparations for as much farm storage as possible and to be very careful that any beans combined do not contain over 14 percent moisture. County Agent Montgomery had in his office pamphlets on storing soybeans on the farm and combine harvesting adjustments and operations. Any combine owner not present at the meeting may have this information by calling Montgomery.

September 13 was only one phase of a series of sweeping incursions into enemy territory far west of the El Alamein line.

With United States and British air forces heavily bombing both Bengasi and Tobruk in diversion attacks, the desert raiders struck Bengasi on the same night, September 13, that other forces were landed at Tobruk.

Although they began 10 days ago, the Bengasi-Barce raids were a tightly held secret until now, after the patrols have returned to their bases.

Hitler Irked, Eh? Stockholm reports relayed by Reuters, said Adolf Hitler had dismissed Field Marshal Fedor von Bock, commander of the Stalingrad assault, as a result of a clash over campaign strategy. These reports said the dispute arose over Hitler's insistence on simultaneous drives against Stalingrad and the Caucasus, while von Bock urged a single concentrated thrust into the Caucasus.

Von Bock was said to have returned to Berlin two weeks ago.

SEPTEMBER 30 DEADLINE FOR DRIVER LICENSE

No Extension of Time for Obtaining Licenses To Drive

Motor vehicle operators who are delaying obtaining their drivers license and expect an extension of time after September 30, are in for a little surprise.

Hal G. Sours, director of the Ohio Department of Highways said Wednesday that "a very small percentage of the more than 2,000,000 Ohio drivers have so far taken out the new license. September 30 is the deadline and there can be no extension of time under the state law."

More than 800 men and women deputy registrars are selling the licenses throughout the state. Cylon W. Wallace, registrar of motor vehicles, has reports indicating that the applications have fallen far short this year over any recent previous year.

Director Sours urged that motorists take advantage of the time between now and September 30 to get their license cards, instead of waiting until the last minute.

FARM BLOCKS IN CONGRESS WANTS CEILINGS RAISED ON CROP PRICE PARITY

the law as it stands today.' This will continue to be my policy."

The President said the parity principle had proven a good standard for peace time and was a good one for war.

The nub of the Farm Bloc arguments was that farmers are losing labor to the war plants, and that unless they are given higher prices for their products they will not be able to compete in the labor market and the nation may face a paralyzing food shortage.

The Office of Price Administration estimated that under the new parity formula proposed by the Farm Bloc the cost of living would increase by $3,000,000,000 to $3,500,000,000, or a jump of 4 to 5 percent in the index.

The announced purpose of the Administration's anti-inflation bill is to effect a general stabilization of prices, wages and other factors in the cost of living, on the basis of September 15 levels.

Under a committee amendment, the President could modify farm price ceilings to take into account increased labor costs. This provision was not strong enough to suit lawmakers from farm states; they demanded a specific recognition of the increased wages of farm help.

Both the House and Senate bills propose establishment of a floor under farm prices at 90 percent of parity, supported by government loans.

As for wages, the Senate bill provides that no employer shall pay and no employee shall receive wages or salaries "in contravention of the regulations promulgated by the President." There is a further provision that except in cases of gross inequities, wages shall not be reduced below the highest level paid between January 1 and September 15 for any particular kind of work.

The wage section of the House Bill, as reported by the Banking committee, provides that "no employer shall pay, and no employee shall receive, any further increases in wages or salaries unless approved by the President or such agency as he may designate," but it is inoperative "with respect to wages and salaries which have not reached a 15 percent increased cost of living level above the wages or salaries paid on January 1, 1941."

Opponents contend this proviso would result in mass salary increases.

Anti-inflation legislation now being debated in Congress would not give President Roosevelt authority to halt immediately the advance in farm prices that started with the outbreak of war in Europe in 1939.

Several important agricultural commodities could advance beyond present or recent peak levels before the Chief Executive could impose price ceilings. Included would be wheat, corn,

Record - Herald's Pledge To Take Part in Scrap Drive Is Acknowledged

More than 80 percent of the nation's daily newspapers, including the Record-Herald, already have pledged participation in the current scrap collection drive.

This report was given to Chairman Donald M. Nelson of the War Production Board today by Richard W. Slocum, head of the newspaper scrap drive committee.

Pledges of cooperation have been received from approximately 1,400 dailies and more pledges are coming in daily, Slocum reported.

At a meeting held September 4, called by Nelson, newspapers accepted leadership in the drive in their communities to bring in additional tons of badly needed scrap.

The Record-Herald, having responded to the appeal for scrap metal to carry on the country's war effort, the following telegram has been received from Donald Nelson, the head of the War Production Board:

"The prompt and enthusiastic action of your newspaper in accepting leadership in the vital national salvage program is the kind of answer I expected in my challenge to the American press."

"If we are to maintain and increase production of the planes, tanks, and ships needed by our fighting men and fighting Allies, we must get in every pound of scrap in this country—from the homes, from the farms, and from industry."

A successful fall campaign conducted by the American newspapers, in cooperation with state and local salvage committees, will avert a serious decline in steel production and will add to our stores of other scarce materials.

"As chairman of the War Production Board, I call upon every citizen of the United States to make this campaign a success, by gathering and turning in all the scrap metals, rubber and rags that can possibly be spared. Let towering victory stockpiles in every community in the nation stand as symbols of America's defiance to the Axis."

oats, cotton, rye, barley, flaxseed, dry beans, hay, apples, turkeys, oranges and lemons.

The legislation would authorize ceilings on farm products at either (1) the highest prices reached between January 1, 1942, and September 15, 1942, adjusted for seasonal variations, or (2) parity prices, whichever is higher.

In no event could ceilings be established at less than parity prices.

The farm products listed above are selling at less than parity. Hence they would not be subject to ceilings until they reached the parity level.

On the other hand, many important farm products have advanced above parity and consequently would be subject to ceilings. They include hogs, beef cattle, veal calves, lambs, butterfat, wholesale milk, eggs, chickens, potatoes and sweet potatoes.

NEW LABOR SERVICE ACT PROPOSED BY WICKARD TO RELIEVE SHORTAGE

end of 1943, farms might lose as many as 2,000,000 more men to the armed forces and to industry. His estimate was based on an army of from 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 men by the end of next year.

"We have now come to a turning point in the road," he said. "We face 1943 with the prospect of less machinery, less farm labor, and probably less favorable weather. At the same time the need for production is going to be as great in 1943 as it has been in 1942, and maybe greater, depending upon the fortunes of war."

Up to now, Wickard said that agriculture had absorbed a large part of the drain on its manpower through the expanded use of women, children and older people, but he added that "this cannot meet the situation much longer."

"Neither," he said, "can the problem be met by paying higher wages. We must recognize that farmers simply cannot pay wages to compete with war industry."

"To do so would result in food costs being forced much higher than present levels; levels which already seem fairly high to many consumers. Keep in mind also that a sharp increase in farm wages accompanied by a sharp increase in farm prices would result in a demand by industrial labor for another boost in its pay. Thus, we would start a vicious circle all over again, just at a time when production dictates that we stabilize the cost of living insofar as is possible."

"Farmers should pay fair wages, and farm income is now at a level which will allow farmers to pay reasonably good wages. Cash farm income in 1942 is expected to reach a record high of 15 billion dollars, which exceeds the previous high record of 1919. But paying high wages will not increase our total supply of labor. Other steps need to be taken."

appeared at Hollywood police station following her disappearance Friday. She told police she found herself driving on a north Hollywood street in a strange automobile. Miller meantime had reported her absence, and they were reunited. But when informed Miller was her husband she screamed and became hysterical.

She told police her last memory of entering her Atascadero, Calif., home November 1, 1941, and finding her first husband, Weller dead in a chair.

She remembers clearly her life before that time.

RAID WARDENS HERE WILL GET INSTRUCTIONS

Special Meeting To Be Held In Memorial Hall Wednesday Night

Air raid wardens of Washington C. H. and Fayette County have been called for a special meeting at Memorial Hall at 8 P. M. Wednesday (tonight) to receive their final instructions from the Ohio State Council of Civilian Defense.

Dr. Niswonger, a professor at special representative of the Ohio State University and a Ohio Council of Civilian Defense, has been assigned here to make an address and give instructions.

Col. Rell G. Allen, chairman of the disaster emergency committee of the Fayette County Civilian Defense Council, who has charge of the work of the air raid wardens, has requested that every warden drop all appointments and be sure to attend this meeting.

ington meanwhile disclosed that Navy and Marine dive-bombers hit and damaged a Japanese cruiser northwest of Guadalcanal, Marine-held island in the Solomons, during an attack Sunday.

The ground fighting in the Owen Stanley Range where Allied troops have checked a Japanese advance 32 miles from Port Moresby was not mentioned in the communique. A spokesman said this meant the general situation was unchanged.

ADVANCE IN HOG PRICES ATTRIBUTED TO DEMAND AND LACK OF CEILING

average for the date is 181,091,000 pounds.

Another factor in the advance, livestock experts asserted, was the smaller number of hogs coming to market. In 12 major centers on the first two days of this week only 121,100 hogs were placed on sale. This compared with 146,100 in the same period last week.

Traders felt the smaller runs may have reflected less apprehension among farmers over the imposition of ceilings. Late in August, the OPA said quotations would be frozen and farmers immediately made heavy shipments. As a result, top price broke nearly $1 and average price lost more than 50 cents.

The OPA has the power to set hog maximums at 110 percent of parity. As hogs are selling well above that level, ceilings are not dependent upon passage of price control legislation in Congress. However, any ceilings plan must have the approval of the Department of Agriculture.

convoy was lost." (Communique complete.)

The German high command asserted Sunday that Nazi submarines and planes had smashed a great Russia-bound convoy in Arctic waters, sinking 38 merchant ships totaling 270,000 tons and destroying or damaging six warships in a running battle lasting six days.

With the fanfare of trumpets usually reserved for announcing great achievements, the Berlin radio broadcast a high command claim that only battered remnants of an original 45 freighters and tankers had escaped.

It said that represented a second triumph for the Germans on the northern convoy route, recalling previous unconfirmed Nazi claims that 35 ships in a convoy of 38 had been sunk in the same waters between July 2 and 7.

MORALE TOPIC OF 2 SPEAKERS AT ROTARY CLUB

Thurman (Dusty) Miller and
Lt. Richard Cockerill
Address Gathering

The inimitable Thurman (Dusty) Miller, newspaperman, lecturer, philosopher and humorist, of Wilmington, was again a speaker before the Rotary Club at the club luncheon Tuesday at the Country Club here.

Introduced by Attorney Ray Maddox, September program chairman, as "one of those speakers whom we bring back again and again because we never grow tired of him," Miller delivered one of his wholesome, witty, morale-building talks that always leaves his audience feeling a lot better for having heard him. His remarks on this occasion were filled with a patriotic flavor without being in the nature of a flag-waving address. It was filled with scores of reasons and related incidents to show why we should be glad to be Americans and how willing and unselfish everyone should be to preserve the liberty we enjoy in this nation.

Lt. Cockerill Speaks
Lieutenant Richard Cockerill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cockerill who is, home on a short furlough from Camp Barkley, Texas, was a club guest and won enthusiastic applause from his hearers when he briefly but convincingly told how the attitude and morale of the "folks back home" affected the boys in military service among our fighting forces.

Maynard Craig, another guest, tersely stressed the importance of the scrap metal drive now underway in Fayette County, and called upon Rotarians for their complete cooperation and assistance in helping this county to produce its quota.

Coming Programs
It was announced that on next Tuesday Colonel Earl Brannon of the office of adjutant general of Ohio, would be the speaker. On October 13, the Rotarians will join with the Lions Club for an evening dinner and smoker when Dr. Harlan Wilson, nationally famous orthopedic surgeon, of Columbus, will be guest speaker and will relate his experiences in England recently, where he was sent by the government to establish hospitals.

PART OF FAYETTE PRISONERS ARE BUSY IN PRISON

Glimpse of What Is Doing Behind Grim Walls of Big Institution

Reports indicate that only part of the numerous Fayette County men who are confined in the Ohio Penitentiary, are kept busy at work.

However the problem of finding employment for the more than 4,000 prisoners appears now to be more nearly solved by Warden Frank D. Henderson than under any previous warden for many years.

All except a few hundred of the prisoners are confined in the penitentiary proper, or the London Prison Farm. The men confined within the grim gray walls of the ancient prison in Columbus, from which the Confederate raider, General John Hunt Morgan and six of his men escaped in 1863 after having been captured and imprisoned when 2,000 southern soldiers invaded Ohio, reaching a point not far north of the Ohio River, are not all engaged in work. In fact less than 60 percent are gainfully employed.

Twenty-three percent are employed in the nine factories within the walls; 32 percent are engaged in offices, schools, church and library, identification office and other departments, including clothing, dining room, sanitation, hospitalization and the general upkeep of the buildings and property of the institution.

Some idea of the vast amount of finished products coming from the "Big House" is afforded by the records of the prison. The auto tag shop employs 163 inmates, uses 1,200 tons of sheet metal, 7,800 gallons of paint, and manufactures 4,238,550 motor vehicle license plates annually, valued at $172,500. The cotton mill affords employment for 134 inmates, uses 700 bales of raw cotton annually, valued at $67,000. In the knitting mill are 118 employees, manufacturing 65,000 pieces of underwear and 200,000 pairs of hose, valued at $40,000.

In the heavier work the machine shop engages 40 men doing general machine and structural work, wire grill-work and produce 645,000 dog license tags for all Ohio counties, a total value of $11,700 for all work, annually. The planing mill has 69 employees, manufacturing sash, doors, casings, frames, cabinet work, special furniture and burial caskets, for a total annual value of $22,000.

The power plant, which provides electrical current and steam heat for the prison and other state buildings and institutions located in Columbus, affords employment for 31 inmates, and uses 25,000 tons of coal annually for the production of $154,000 worth of electricity and steam for heating purposes.

The printing shop has 52 men engaged in doing all types of printing for the 23 state institutions and divisions of the Department of Public Welfare. In the tin shop 12 pairs of hands are kept busy in the annual manufacture of tinware, buckets, tubs, cast aluminum kitchen and table ware, valued at $14,000. The woolen mill employs the greatest number, 336 inmates, manufacturing 9,000 wool blankets, 32,000 yards of wool cassimere and overcoating, 15,000 yards wool jeans, 56,000 yards shirting, 34,000 yards denim and 21,000 yards canton flannel, 18,000 mops, 25,000 yards ticking, 6,500 Turkish towels, 725 cotton mattresses annually, valued at $153,000.

The barber shop employs 68 inmates. The prisoners receive two shaves each week, and one hair cut a month.

HUGE MIXER GIVEN ESCORT BY PATROL

Eases Through Streets To Avoid Traffic Lights

A huge concrete mixer, evidently engaged in government work, passed through the city heading eastward, shortly after 4 P. M. Tuesday.

The big mixer, mounted on a special government truck, stood 18 feet in height and was being escorted by a State Highway Patrol officer.

It was necessary for the big truck and mixer to swing around each traffic light to prevent tearing it down.

A delicious turkey dinner was served at the noon hour. The occasion was also in honor of the 82nd birthday anniversary of Mr. William Dill. The dining table was beautifully arranged with fall flowers, a tiny place card was at each place and a red carnation as a favor for each guest. ## Delta Kappa Gamma, Teachers' Sorority, Resumes Meetings for 1942-1943

Miss Bess Cleaveland was a charming hostess to Alpha Delta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma at her home Tuesday evening and she was assisted by Mrs. Faye Mayo, Miss Amelia Evans, Miss Marjorie Evans and Miss Margaret Gibson.

Mrs. Mayo, president, conducted a short business meeting during which she announced a plan in which all the chapters of Delta Kappa Gamma will contribute to a fund for buying War Bonds. Although this is a national project of the organization each chapter will decide upon its own project for earning not less than one dollar per member for this.

The state convention which will be held in Cleveland was announced for October 9-11. Miss Jane Durant will be a delegate from the chapter.

The chapter was fortunate in having three members, Mrs. Faye Mayo, Mrs. Elton Elliott and Miss Gladys Nelson, attend the National Convention in St. Louis in August. Mrs. Mayo gave interesting highlights from the business meetings and committee meetings which she attended. She said that the theme "Education as Defense Work," was used throughout the convention and stressed by many speakers. Mrs. Elton Elliott told of the figurines that were presented. Each state is privileged to present a figurine representing a pioneer woman in the field of education. These are modeled in the likeness of the person whom they represent.

For the serving of a delicious dessert course the members were seated at small tables. Each table was centered with small brass bowls filled with tiny flowers. Attractively arranged flowers were used throughout the home.

The chapter chose this meeting to honor its two brides of recent months, Mrs. Lewis Overturn (Ellen Bricker) and Mrs. Leo Whiteside (Virginia Wilson), both of whom were presented with lovely gifts for which they made happy response.

Jeffersonville Methodist Church Scene of Reception For Rev., Mrs. E. R. Rector

The congregation of the Methodist Church in Jeffersonville were hosts to a very lovely reception on last Friday evening, when they complimented their pastor, Reverend E. R. Rector and Mrs. Rector, the occasion marking their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

One hundred and seventy-five guests were received by the two honor guests, who graciously welcomed each and accepted their good wishes and congratulations in their very pleasing manner.

The church was beautifully decorated with masses of autumn flowers, gorgeously combined. Baskets of asters, dahlias, zinnias and fern banked the rostrum, with two five-branch candelabra holding burning tapers on either side.

Rev. and Mrs. Rector and their daughter, Lavaun, came to Jeffersonville in September, 1939, and at that time, the former M. P. Church and the M. E. Church united. Under the very devoted guidance of Rev. Rector, the church has maintained a large congregation and followers, with countless christian duties performed yearly.

A very well planned program was presented during the evening which included: piano solo, "Liebestraum," by Miss Ruth Eleanor Wiseman; vocal solo, "Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Mrs. Elizabeth Dunkel.

Reading, "Courtin' Linda," by David Baughn.

The Male Grange Quartet, composed of Mr. Ora Middleton, Mr. W. S. Paxson, Mr. Richard Rankin, of Washington C. H., and Mr. Max Morrow, sang three selections, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Salute D'Amour," and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

Piano selection, "Because," by Miss Martha Straley; solo, "Oh Promise Me," by Mrs. J. O. Tressler; solo, "I Love You Truly," by Miss Margaret Smith.

Following the program, Miss Martha Straley played all accompaniments for the musical numbers.

Following the program, Mrs. Justin Owens presented to Rev. and Mrs. Rector, in behalf of the congregation, a chest of hand-some silver, for which they acknowledged the beautiful gift in sincere appreciation.

The reception table was handsomely appointed, with very lovely decorations used. A five-branch silver candelabra was the centerpiece and held lighted tapers. At each end were tall single holders, with tall tapers. Between the centerpiece and the candle holders on each end, were bowls filled with white azalia, mums, and white petunias. At one end of the table was the three tiered wedding, decorated in white and silver and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The evening was a most enjoyable and pleasurable one, spent in congenial visiting.

The committees responsible for this lovely affair were Mrs. Leora Booco, and Mrs. Paul Knisley, for the cake.

The general committee was Mrs. W. W. Williams, Mrs. Tom Janes, Mrs. Wilbur Bush, Mrs. Ellsworth Vannorsdall, Mrs. Roy Fultz, Mrs. O. L. Wiseman, Mrs. Almer Robinson, Mrs. Harold Zimmerman.

The program committee were Mrs. Justin Owens, Mrs. C. F. Morris, Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, Mr. Max Morrow.

A meeting of the constitution committee was called for Wednesday, September 30 following the prayer meeting services of the church and will be held at the Davis home. The group accepted an invitation from the Young People's Society of the Baptist Church to be their guests at the Young People's service and church service on Sunday evening, October 4. Following this they will be entertained at the home of Mary Elizabeth Wood. Members were urged to plan to attend the next business meeting to be held on October 27 with Miss Jane Cummings and Miss Patty Cabbage as hostesses.

What with new equipment becoming almost impossible to obtain and gas rationing and rubber shortages forcing more citizen to use public transportation, the problem of carrying everybody has become a major one. The Office of Defense Transportation has offered as a possible solution the "stand-sit," which has been installed for trial on a Washington street car, above. Miss Mary Altman demonstrates how passengers will neither stand nor sit but do a combination of both. If successful, the "stand-sits" probably will be installed on busses and street cars all over the country.

-Spying- On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
(Wide World News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Lou Smith, whose innovations at Rockingham Park included the 15-race program for war relief last spring, has come up with a new one for the Fall meeting. . . . He has asked every horse-breeder in the United States to contribute one weanling, yearling or even a two-year-old that could be spared to be "sold" to war bond buyers at Rock . . . Lou probably expected to get more "steak" horses than stake horses, and they might be a good buy, too, these days—so you can imagine his surprise when the first reply came in from Emerson (Valdina) Woodward, of Texas, offering a yearling sired by Bahram, the $250,000 English horse . . . incidentally, racing men have made themselves look very good with such contributions to the war effort as the seven-day post-season meeting at Belmont, Churchill Downs' Victory Days and turning their most profitable events into relief programs.

Jack Flynn Knocked Out By Lee Savold

AKRON, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Lee Savold, high-ranking heavy-weight from Des Moines, Ia., registered his second ring victory within a week as he knocked out ambitious Jack Flynn, of Rochester, N. Y., after two minutes and 25 seconds of the fourth stanza in their scheduled 10-round bout here last night.

Twice before the final blow the 23-year-old Rochester fighter went down for the count of nine—once under Savold's first blow in the fourth, a jolting right to the jaw.

Flynn, at 195, held a two-pound advantage over the National Boxing Association's third-ranking heavyweight.

Sergeant Jack Marshall, of Texas, won a 10-round co-featured bout with Dan Merritt, of Cleveland in a decision that was booed loudly by the fans for 15 minutes.

FRIDAY'S GAME AT CHILlicothe PREPARED FOR

WHS Gridders Toughened Up
With Fundamental Drill
—And Mistakes Ironed Out

The WHS Blue Lion football team will take to the road for the next two weeks, first stopping at Chillicothe to battle Cavaliers and then at Wilmington next week to face the Hurricanes.

Despite the absence of four first team players, the Lions continued their practice session this week with some difficulty. There were not enough players even to have a scrimmage. The coaches, Jerry Kissell and George Miraben, put the boys through more fundamentals and tougher calisthenics to get in trim for the game with the Cavaliers at Chillicothe Friday. Coach Kissell told his boys Tuesday evening that they would not have much "personal contact" this week during practice sessions due to lack of players. "But you will be in shape to meet Chillicothe," he assured them.

The game against the Tartans from Portsmouth, was no pink tea for the Lions, and it did show, in certain spots, that the boys need some polishing both on the line and in the back field. During this week of practice sessions the Blue and White will be given the answers and remedies for the mistakes they made last Friday against Portsmouth.

Three new members have been added to the Lion squad since last week, they are, Mitchell, Burnett and McAllister.

When the Lions hit the road for Chillicothe Friday, it is going to be one of the best games of the season, the fans are already saying. Both teams are said to be equally matched.

The Cavaliers have a new coach this year, David B. Query, who replaced Tom Vernia when he enlisted in the Navy.

Forty-one players showed up for practice when they first called the roll. Eight lettermen returned and 13 left them through graduation.

One of the Cavalier's stars, Art Jones, joined the Navy a few weeks ago so will not be on the team this year.

The Chillicothe boys won only two games last year but expect to do better this year. In their game Friday night against Jackson, they won the game by a score of 19 to 0.

The Jackson and Washington C. H. games, the first two opponents against the Cavaliers and the only non-league games they play this year, have been announced as "warm-up games" in preparation for their league competition.

A large following of Washington C. H. fans will travel with the team to Chillicothe to see the game Friday night.

Next week the boys will go to Wilmington to meet the Hurricanes, who were stopped last Friday night by the Xenia boys. The WHS Band, under the direction of Paul E. Fitzwater, will also go to Wilmington to put on a "field show" before the game and at the half. It will not attend the Chillicothe game, however.

High School Teams Share Spotlight of Football in Ohio

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Those terrific Tigers of Massillon High School, unbeaten by an Ohio team since 1934, and defeated but once in their last 70 games (7-0 by New Castle, Pa.) in 1937, are off on another championship spree.

The Tigers have their third coach in as many years, but the changes don't seem to matter. Last week Massillon beat Cleveland Cathedral Latin by 38 to 0 for its 44th in a row without defeat—the victory string marred only by last year's 6-6 tie with Mansfield.

Elwood Kammer, junior high coach at Massillon for seven years before taking over the Tiger helm, had his first team out of the game most of the last half. A crowd of 13,500 saw the game, and Massillon made all its touchdowns on the ground, the feature attraction being a 90-yard jaunt by substitute half-back Tyre Gibson.

While the Massillons were carrying on in traditional style, several other squads which did not taste defeat in 1941 continued down the victory trail. Xenia O. S. & S. O. Home, winner of eight straight last season, when it led the state in scoring with 359 points while not permitting an enemy cleat to touch pay dirt, defeated Mount Vernon's Yellow Jackets 31 to 0 for the Cadets' 19th in a row.

Toledo Libbey, tied by Martins Ferry last season in a post-season tilt, slugged out a 26-6 win over Toledo Woodward; Mansfield, tied only by Massillon a year ago, beat Akron West 14 to 6, while Cleveland Lincoln, winner of nine in a row in 1941, nosed out Toledo Scott 6 to 0.

Only Portsmouth East of last year's unsullied group went down in the opener. The River City squad dropped a 13-0 verdict to Washington C. H.

Along with the 90-yard jaunt by Massillon's Gibson, several other long runs were chalked up in the inaugurals. Don Born of Dayton Fairview intercepted a pass and raced 70 yards for his team's only marker in losing to Hamilton by 18 to 6; Wilmington's Charley Hamilton did the same as his mates lost to Xenia by 19 to 6, while John Richardson's 61-yard run helped Chillicothe beat Jackson 19 to 0.

Coach Dana King, after a 13-year absence spent coaching University of Cincinnati teams, and the Cincy Bengals of the American Pro League, returned as Hamilton High mentor and watched his scholastic proteges beat Fairview. At Middletown, Coach Elmer Lingrel started his 20th season as Middle mentor, and the boys beat Columbus East 19 to 0.

The "back of the week" undoubtedly was Jack Bickel, 165-pound Newark lad. The youngster, in the 33-0 conquest over Columbus West, gained 147 yards from scrimmage, was on the end of two forward-laterals which gained 50 yards, returned three punts for 51 yards, scored three touchdowns and plunged for three extra points.

RUNNING RACES AT BEULAH IN HOME STRETCH

Monday and Tuesday Are To Be Dedicated to
Army-Navy Relief

COLUMBUS, Sept. 23.—Beulah Park's fall meeting of running races is now in the home stretch but the biggest days of the season are still ahead.

Thursday will mark the final twilight day. Post time is 2:15 P. M. daily excepting Thursday, when the sport gets under way at 3:30.

Friday is to be the last ladies' day. Ladies' days, always popular at the Grove City course, have been exceptionally well-patronized during the current meeting.

The program for the last day of the regularly-scheduled meeting Saturday, will be co-featured by the fourth running of the $1,500 added Ohio Horse Breeders' Association Stake for Ohio-owned two-year-olds and a marathon race at the distance of two miles.

Following the Saturday card, the track and all of its facilities are to be turned over to the Army and Navy Emergency Relief Fund for two additional days of racing, Monday and Tuesday. Admission will be via ticket only, now selling for $1 and which admit the purchaser to both afternoons of racing.

Every cent of profit derived from all sources of revenue—mutuel play, gate receipts, programs, concessions, etc., will go to the Army and Navy Emergency Relief Fund.

The 20-piece Fort Hayes military band will be on hand both days to furnish music. Sgt. George Martin, Meadville, Tenn., and Corp. James W. Corey, Tennessee, are director and bandmaster, respectively, of this splendid musical organization.

An induction ceremony will be held each day prior to the first race with 12 air cadets being sworn in at ceremonies in front of the grandstand. The Curtiss-Wright warplane factory also will have an exhibit at the track during the two days.

School and Then Army For Pitcher Pearson

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Pitcher Ike Pearson, 25, of the Phils, who enlisted in the Marines yesterday, said he did not expect to be called to duty until December and would "brush up" at the University of Mississippi after the baseball season ends. He and Garnet Whitacre of South Lebanon, O., were married at Hamilton, O., last July.

Australia's steel works at Newcastle and Port Kembla produce more than 1,800,000 tons a year.

President George Trautman, of the Association today announced a best four-out-of-seven game schedule designed to give the players the biggest possible slice of the box office take.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—(P)—Wheat prices gained about a cent a bushel in early trading today, reaching best figures in the last 3 to 4 months, then spent the remainder of the session fluctuating nervously just below the day's high. Washington reports of a move in the Senate to revise the basis of calculating parity prices so that ceilings on farm commodities may be higher than present parity figures stimulated buying. Demand also came from mills and lifting of hedges in connection with sale of more than 300,000 bushels for shipment out of Chicago, largest business of this nature in weeks, added to support.

Wheat closed 1/4-1/2c higher than yesterday, Dec. 1.28 1/2-3/4, May 1.31 1/2-3/4; corn 1/4-1/2c up, Dec. 86 1/4-3/4, May 90 3/4; oats 1/4-1/2c higher; soybeans 1/4-1/2c advanced and rice 1/2-3/4c higher.

DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—(P)—Rails gave the stock market a fairly vigorous leadership today under broad buying which embraced not only the recently favored low priced issues but the higher rated shares as well. Steels and aircrafts moved with the carriers, but a substantial number of industrial pivots had little climbing power. Over the list gains of fractions to around a point were well distributed. The brisk surge for the transportation stocks was attributed to a surge of optimism on dividend prospects based on Southern Railway's announcement yesterday of a disbursement of $1.25 on the preferred stock after a lapse of 11 years. Russia's continued strong resistance to the Nazi siege of Stalingrad also had a good effect on market sentiment.

OLD GAS MAIN TO BE TORN UP IN THIS COUNTY

Four Miles on Danville Road To Be Removed in Short Time

The old six inch gas main, extending from a point just north of the Fayette-Madison County line, to immediately north of Bloomingburg, on the Danville road, originally laid in 1910 to furnish Washington C. H. with natural gas, is to be torn up.

At the present time a salvage company, which has purchased the 16,400 feet of gas main, is conferring with Acting Prosecutor Charles S. Hire and the County Commissioners regarding removal of the old line.

When the Central Contract and Finance Co. entered into a contract with the County Commissioners on July 5, 1910, for building the line, agreement was made to place the highway in good condition in connection with the line.

Before the line is removed, it is expected that adequate bond will be required, of the salvage concern, to insure the road being restored properly when the pipe is removed.

The old line was abandoned a number of years ago when new and larger mains were laid to supply this city with natural gas, and the Ohio Fuel Gas Company owns the line.

When the main was laid in the fall of 1910, the trench was cut at the edge of the traveled surface of the road at many points, and since then the road has been widened, so that disturbance of a great deal of the edge of the traveled surface may result when the line is removed.

It is to insure the road being replaced in good condition that Acting Prosecutor Hire is insisting that adequate bond be furnished before the pipe is removed.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK OBSERVANCE

Annual Event Is Taking on New Importance

Declaring that any delay in production or any loss of critical materials endangers the nation's war program, the Ohio State Council of Defense today requested all local defense councils to observe the period of October 4 to 10 as Fire Prevention Week.

Ralph H. Stone, executive director of the state defense council, said in a communication to the local defense council that steps should be taken to conserve human and material resources from the destructive force of fire.

Stone's announcement followed the issuance of a proclamation by Governor John W. Bricker who described fire as a "major enemy of America's productive forces and man power."

Asserting that "accidental fires are as much help to Hitler as though he had set them off with his own incendiary bombs," Stone urged local defense councils to stress the importance of keeping homes and places of employment safe from fire.

"The state's civilian and industrial protection program will teach thousands of persons ways and means of defending themselves and their homes against fire as well as bombs or sabotage," he declared.

RURAL ELECTRICITY FOR LARGE NUMBERS

Extensions Under Federal Plan Great Aid

A surprisingly large number of rural residents in Fayette County are enjoying all phases of electrical service, with power for all farm purposes desired as well as for lighting homes and other buildings.

The Federal rural electrification program resulted in scores of additional farm families in Southern Fayette County obtaining electricity, while extensions made by The Dayton Power and Light Company and other power concerns reaching into Fayette County also have extended their lines to various parts of the county in recent years.

WEATHER IS AID TO CORN CUTTING

Rapid Headway Is Now Being Made on Work in Community

The recent cool weather has been a big aid to farmers in harvesting their corn, as it permits workers to carry their work forward without danger of being overcome by the heat, such as occurred last week.

Rapid headway is being made in cutting corn in all parts of the county, and already many farmers have completed their corn cutting, and workmen have been released to assist other farmers.

By the end of the week it is expected two-thirds to three-fourths of the corn that is to be cut will be in the shock.
